

Are You an Author? Want to Connect with Independent Bookstores?

Joining the NCIBA Is a Great Way to Start

The Northern California Independent Booksellers Association (NCIBA) represents independent bookstores throughout the region. It's a great resource for booksellers, but it also can help authors looking to market and publicize their books.

In addition to our bi-monthly newsletter and access to office resources, NCIBA offers author members the following:

- One free e-mail blast to all bookseller members (some date restrictions - $100 value)
- One free rental of our mailing list, in zip code order on peel-off labels ($100 value)
- Two free admissions to NCIBA Fall Trade Show, held in Oakland every October; mingle with booksellers from 120 independent bookstores
- A copy of our brochure, How To Market Your Book to Independent Bookstores in California
